

DO YOU HAVE A STRONG FAMILY?

"Do you build up your family relations by spending time reinforcing one another as persons of worth?"

"Can you communicate openly about how you feel and think? Are you free to speak the truth in love, concerning such things as money, sex, interests, friends, in-laws and religion?"

"Do you trust one another...do you keep your promises...even to your children?"

"Are you willing to sacrifice for each other; time, energy, attention?"

"Is praise heard more than criticism in and around the home?"

"Are members of the family forgiving?"

"Does your family accept and care for each member just as they are, without withholding affection until they 'Measure up'?"

"Are smiles seen at your house every day?"

"Do you have ~~a~~ specific goals for the family to work toward: Such goals as education, security, social status, walking with the Lord?"

"Does your family have a helping attitude towards each other and others outside the home?"

"Does your family encourage its members to develop to their full potential in training, talents, ability and hobbies?"

"As a family, do you maintain a healthy atmosphere in the home — with healthy minds and healthy bodies?"

"Is your family able to balance their spending so that each member's needs are met?"

"Do you take time to recognize and strengthen the spiritual side of your family life on a regular basis?"

"Do the children honor and respect the parents?"

"Does your family take time to play and do things together on a regular basis?"

IF YOU CAN SAY YES TO 12 OUT OF THE 16 QUALITIES
YOU CAN CONSIDER YOURSELF HAVING A STRONG

FAMILY

Quotes by George © '83